

Universities Association for Lifelong Learning

Annual Conference 2010

14 - 16 March 2010 University of Oxford

From widening participation to employer engagement: lifelong learning in higher education

• Employers • Regions • Communities • Individual learners • FE colleges

The conference programme includes:

- keynote presentations from leaders on policy, practice and research in skills and employer engagement relating to lifelong learning
- workshop sessions on CPD, work-based learning and widening participation
- networking and sharing experiences
- international comparisons
- Conference Dinner in the Dining Hall, Kellogg College, University of Oxford

Call for Papers

Proposals are invited on academic, policy, practice and administrative topics. The conference programme will be flexible to include formal presentations, workshops and shorter seminar papers and poster sessions.

Please send your proposal of no more than 300 words by 30 December 2009 to Lucy Bate at admin@uall.ac.uk

Further information will follow. In the meantime please make sure that your colleagues know of this event and put the dates in your diary.

The conference will be held at Rewley House, University of Oxford, which is ideally situated in the heart of Oxford. The Conference will focus on immediate and future issues for the Higher Education Lifelong Learning community and will be of particular interest to policy makers, senior management, academic providers and administrators in lifelong learning both nationally and internationally.