Universities Association for Lifelong Learning (UALL) and Standing Conference on University Teaching and Research in the Education of Adults (SCUTREA) 26-28 June 2023 Conference

Call for Papers and Workshop Proposals

The University of Cambridge is hosting the 2023 UALL & SCUTREA Annual Conference at Madingley Hall from Monday June 26th to Wednesday June 28th. The conference will bring together academics, practitioners, activists, and policy makers from across the globe. Proposals for papers to be delivered, and for Workshops to be organised, are invited.

The focus of the conference is on research, practice and policy – with innovation at its heart. Submissions for papers, workshops and posters are particularly welcome on the following themes:

1. Lifelong Learning for a changing world, including:
  - shifting practice responding to new priorities of governments
  - microcredentials, credit transfer, apprenticeships, and the Lifetime Learning Entitlement
  - imperatives for different forms of adult education and lifelong learning
  - the role of place and knowledge exchange

2. Creating Solidarity and Possibility in the face of Democracies in Crisis, including:
  - responding to the human impacts of war, climate crisis, migration, and displaced persons
  - addressing the needs of different groups through responsive practices
  - innovations in access, engagement, and participation
  - democracy, citizenship, and the “permanent national necessity” of adult education

3. Sustainable futures, including
  - innovative practices that address the great challenges facing society
  - new ways, modes, and areas of study
  - changing learning environments and technologies
  - new partnerships to innovate and engage adults and lifelong learners

How to submit your proposals

Paper presentations: please submit a short version of your paper, of up to 1000 words, including an abstract of up to 100 words. Those accepted to present papers will be invited to submit a full paper for consideration for publication in special issues of the following journals:

- International Review of Applied Economics (Taylor & Francis)
- Widening Participation and Lifelong Learning (Open University)

Workshops: please send an abstract of up to 300 words detailing the aims of your workshop and the ways in which you will engage participants in interaction.

Showcase: please send a proposal on what you would showcase, and how it relates to a theme. This could be a poster session, or another means of sharing best practice with colleagues.

Please send abstracts and proposals to admin@uall.ac.uk by 31st January 2023
